

ARCA National Golf Day 2024

Join ARCA on 12th June at the stunning Cameron House on the banks of Loch Lomond

The championship standard Carrick golf course, is just a stone's throw away from Cameron House Hotel in The Carrick estate, situated on the banks of Loch Lomond.

Following registration, you will set off for a round of golf. With a par of 71 and measuring 7082 yards from the Championship tee's, the Carrick is a test for even the most established player. Add to that 4 more teeing options and The Carrick becomes accessible for every level of golfer to enjoy the simply stunning surroundings.

After tackling the uphill 437-yard par 4 9th hole you will come a unique halfway house, The Highland Laddie. Golfers can enjoy some refreshment, served from what was formally a London River Thames boat. Then play the back 9 holes set against the backdrop of Loch Lomond and Ben Lomond.

In the evening, there will be a three course dinner with presentations to category winners.
